June 11 – The Color Run at Gillette Stadium: The Color Run is the first paint race of its kind and was inspired by several awesome events, including Disney's World of Color, Paint Parties, Mud Runs, and festivals throughout the world . We wanted to create a less stressful and untimed running environment that is more about health and happiness! We hope that The Color Run can act as a catalyst to inspire continual healthy living. <http://thecolorrun.com/locations/boston/>

June 11-12 - German Sommerfest in Walpole: Come visit us and find out what 'German Gemütlichkeit' is all about. We would love to have you as our guest at one of our large outdoor events or in our Ratskeller and share our cultural heritage with you. (As well as a beer or two, of course). Live music and dancing, kid's games, pony rides and target shooting are just some of the activities offered. Start the summer with a fun filled weekend for the whole family, while enjoying traditional German fare (but not only) and beers. Sommerfest will be held rain or shine. Our pavilion offers 500 seats and a dance floor protected from rain or scorching sun. Ample parking is available! <http://www.germanclub.org/>

June 11 – The 4th Annual New Bedford JazzFest is a showcase of local musicians, artists, and food vendors at Pier 3 on the waterfront. Last year, over 700 people joined us for a day of music, food, and fun! The musicians at NBJF represent a wide variety of jazz music from modern jazz to afro-cuban jazz to an all female jazz band to big band. Best of all, the acts are all from the New Bedford area or the North East. In addition to amazing local jazz, the festival features displays from local craft and fine artists, beer from area brewers, and New Bedford based food trucks.
