Old Sturbridge Village re-creates various activities from an early New England Thanksgiving Day, including cooking at the hearth, demonstrations of 19th-century table manners, a Thanksgiving sermon, and after-dinner entertainment. The Thanksgiving Day menu includes turnip sauce, stuffing, pies and Marlboro Pudding. Proper 19th century table manners required eating from one's knife. After dinner, the men will demonstrate a target shoot, the 1830s entertainment equivalent of today's Thanksgiving Day football games. Old Sturbridge Village, Sturbridge www.osv.org
