

ry hours to a cooking class, and even a teddy-bear picnic. The library, located at 10 Bird Street, opens at 10 a.m., Monday through Saturday. For a schedule of events, visit www.boydenlibrary.org or call 508-543-1245.

FOXBORO MEMORIAL HALL

— Admission is free to this 140-year-old building, which has served as the town's museum since 1968. Located at 40 South St., Memorial Hall is open on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. and on the second Saturday of each month from 9 a.m. to noon. 508-543-1248 or www.foxboro-maonline.com.

The Great Outdoors

F. GILBERT HILLS STATE

FOREST — Spanning 1,027 acres, F. Gilbert Hills offers 23 miles of trails for hiking, biking and horseback riding. Come here to picnic or to camp, getting an outdoor getaway just a few miles from home. Follow the signs off Mill Street to enter the park. 508-543-5850.

NORMANDY FARMS CAMP-GROUND — For deluxe, family-friendly camping right in Foxboro, Normandy Farms has a slew of amenities and accommodations. Though known for its RV camping, Normandy Farms also has on-site rental cabins. With four swimming pools, a pond, and a double Jacuzzi, not to mention ball fields and a recreation lodge, Normandy Farms is camping in luxury. Year-round universal recreation tents come with a flat-screen TV and air conditioning. Located at 72 West St., Normandy Farms can be reached at 866-67FARMS or online at www.normandy-farms.com.

COCASSET RIVER RECRE-

ATION AREA — Formerly part of Camp St. Augustine, Cocasset River Recreation Area (CCRA) has cabins, playing fields, as well as the Recreation Hall and the Chapel Meeting House available for rent. Plus, Foxboro residents can take advantage of a classic seasonal treat with a dip in the CRRA swimming pool. The pool is open from June 20 until Aug. 24, and a family season pass costs $150. The recreation department will

NORMANDY FARMS
FAMILY CAMPING RESORT